Contributions are not tax deductible as a charitable donation for federal income tax purposes. By law, the maximum amount an individual may contribute is $2,700 for the primary election and another $2,700 for the general election, for a total of $5,400 per person. A couple may contribute up to $5,400 for the primary and up to $5,400 for the general election on a joint bank account check. Federal multi-candidate PACs may contribute $5,000 per election. Federal Election Law requires political committees to report the name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer for contributions where aggregate is in excess of $200 in an election cycle. Contributions from corporations, foreign nationals, labor unions and federal government contractors are prohibited. Partnership checks are welcome, but please provide a written statement as to whom to attribute contributions.
